The Violation reads: RIGL 28-27-5.1 "Practice for which a journeyperson or apprentice license required." On or about October 21, 2010, Mr. Daniel Terilli installed a steam boiler at the above mentioned address. Mr. Terrelli was not licensed to install heating equipment. This is a violation of RIGL 28-27-5.1. Mr. Whittaker noted that this was a continuation from when Mr. Terilli was previously before the Board. At that time there was a motion from the Board to bring him back on a violation of RIGL 28-27-5.1 "Practice for which a journeyperson or apprentice license required". Sean Nolan was questioned by Ben Copple regarding notice sent to Mr. Terilli. Mr. Nolan informed the Board that notice was sent to Mr. Terilli by both Certified Mail and Regular Mail. The Certified Mail was returned. The Regular Mail was not returned. Both were sent to Daniel Terilli, PO Box 7867, Warwick, RI 02887-7867, the address of record for the respondent. Tim Byrne made a motion that Violation 4027 did occur; seconded by Dennis Brennan and passed unanimously by the Board. about January 14, 2011, Mr. Delmonico installed a new boiler at the above mentioned location. A check with the City of Cranston indicates that Mr. Delmonico did not pull out a mechanical permit for this installation. This is a violation of RIGL 28-27-20 "State and municipal inspections and installation permits". This is the second violation this month for no permit. One violation at $950. Anthony J. Delmonico was not present. Ben Copple questions Sean Nolan. Mr. Nolan informed the Board that Mr. Delmonico called prior to the start of the meeting and stated he would not be attending and requested to be put on a payment plan. Mr. Nolan also confirmed that notice was sent to the respondent by both Certified Mail and Regular Mail. Neither was returned. Notices were sent to 129 Fletcher Ave #C, Cranston, RI 02920-5331, the address on record. The Board questioned Mr. Whittaker. Mr. Whittaker addressed the Board that Mr. Delmonico is pleading guilty to the violation and going to be put on a payment plan and that he paid his other fine of $500.00. The appeal is considered withdrawn as Mr. Delmonico has decided to pay the fine.
